Prgm:	Deferred Prosecution Program	214/00		Fund No:	1110

Mission:

The Deferred Prosecution Unit (DPU) operates within the District Attorney's Office as an alternative to conviction and sentencing. The DPU plays a major role in avoiding overuse of the Dane County Jail by placing certain defendants into appropriate treatment and/or counseling. Supervision of first time, non-OWI, non-drug case offenders is done through contracts and referrals to community resources. The participants benefit from the education and counseling received, as well as the a chance to avoid a criminal conviction. This program is committed to the safety of crime victims and the community. The public benefits from a reduction in recidivism, monetary restitution, community service, and huge savings of court time and court resources.

Description:

The Deferred Prosecution Unit (DPU) is staffed with 6.0 FTEs: the director, three senior social workers, a community service coordinator, and a Clerk IV. Volunteer staff include one or two student interns. The DPU typically takes first time, non-violent, non drug case offenders into its program. Approximately 1,000 cases are referred each year. An offender is referred to the program by being deferred by a prosecutor, returning to court for adjudication only in the event of a failure by the offender to fulfill the terms of his or her contract with the District Attorney's Office. If assessed as appropriate for the program, the offender signs a contract that creates a course of action to limit the chances that the person will repeat the criminal behavior. Offenders agree to attend classes, make restitution, engage in community restitution work, secure needed psychiatric, alcohol and drug treatment, and vocational counseling. The length of the contract averages 9 to 36 months. In return for successful completion of the program, the court agrees to dismiss the case. If the participant does not fulfill the contract, the contract is terminated and the offender is returned to court for further proceedings.
